County Engineer Ron Gregg met with the board to discuss a few items. He reported that he only received one bid before the 1:00pm deadline on June 2nd for snowplow equipment. Because Gregg would like to have three bidders to choose from, he asked that the Board reject the bid and ask for new bids. Motion by Sorenson, second by White, unanimous vote to reject the bid and re-advertise for new bids.

Gregg gave an update regarding the 911 residence signage. He reported that a utility locate meeting took place at the Highway Department on Monday morning to coordinate locations for each 911 signage placement and they hope to start installing signs by the end of the week.

Chairman Oeltjenbruns signed the contract for the CSAH 10 bridge replacement project (SAP 17-610-33).

Commissioner Kuecker questioned Gregg about a few different issues.
